++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Largely cloudy with patchy rain and drizzle. Mild.

Today:
A windy and largely cloudy day today. There will be outbreaks of patchy rain mainly over high ground before a band of heavier and more persistent rain arrives this evening. Feeling milder than recent days. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Tonight:
Outbreaks of persistent and heavy rain will push south-eastwards across the region during the first part of the night, followed by clearer more showery weather later. Winds strengthening too. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Wednesday:
A colder day on Wednesday with blustery showers, particularly along western coasts. A chance of the occasional bright spells. Remaining windy. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Showers will ease going into Thursday with plenty of sunshine, before outbreaks of rain sweep through overnight into Friday with strong winds. Further blustery showers are expected on Saturday.
